Chorus: Boo-Yah T.R.I.B.E.

It's a thin line
Between love and hate
It's a thin line
Between love and hate

[Kid Frost]

(Verse 1)

Three in the morning
My pager reads your number
And at that point, I realized, just starting to wonder
Where I'm at
What I'm doin' and all that
I could have called, but instead
I just sat back
Cause I've been calling you since ten
And now, it's three
I'm not your puppet on a string
So I'm letting you know, it's that
Hates trip
That's it's a thin line
Between love and hate

Repeat Chorus Twice

(Verse 2)

I know it's wrong, you've been doing it big in love
So now it's time to let you know what's up
Do you remember
Early December, you told me, "Don't
Come over, because
Of the cold and rainy weather"
But

[Boo-Yah T.R.I.B.E.] Knock, knock, knock
Who is it

[Kid Frost] Yo, it's Frost, girl

[Boo-Yah T.R.I.B.E.] Let me in

[Female Singer] Frost gon' let me
Down

[Kid Frost] Well, you know I won't let you down

Just remember that

Repeat Chorus Twice

{saxophone solo}

Repeat Chorus

(Verse 3)

It's

Five in the morning, and you're still tryin' to get through

Swearin' to Frost for hangin' out with the crew

But baby

If this keeps going on

I can't

And just like I can't, I'm gone

We been through

Thick and thin

Good and bad

Arguments lost soon as I walked through the pad

But I need you, trip from the gate

Cause it's a thin line

Between love and gate

Repeat Chorus Twice

(Verse 4)

I know it's wrong, you've been doing it big in love

And now it's time to let you know what's up

Do you remember

Early December, you told me, "Don't

Come over

Cause of the cold and rainy weather"

But

[Boo-Yah T.R.I.B.E.] Knock, knock, knock

Who is it

[Kid Frost] Yo, it's Frost, girl

[Boo-Yah T.R.I.B.E.] Let me in

[Female Singer] Frost gon' let me down

Don't let me down

Repeat Chorus Til Fade
