Waiting here alone in loneliness
Feels like I'm in outta space
Now I'm drowning without your love
Fading I'm in the dark

Waiting here looking through the window
Ticking clock is all I hear
I lie awake my eyes are open
But I can't see you anymore

Reff
For those years I'm waiting for nothing
'till my brain's aching and my heart's closing
Why it takes so much time for me to realize that
You'll never back to me
You'll never back to me

I just wanna stop loving you
But I don't know what to do
I know our love is tragedy
That's why I should let go

Bridge:
I take a deep breath every time I try to let go
Crumbling soul by the pain you caused
Now I'm burning all this memories of yours
'cause I know it has reached it's end
