Flowing teardrops in the dark, Leaving just a single spark
That'll tell me that it's over

Secretly behind your back
Hoping sleep will come at last
Knowing that my faith is broken

This time goes by
Wait for the sun to rise
It's a matter of your smile, if it fades away

I hold my breath 'till it's over

I will let myself decide
What I feel, it isn't right
And a shadow's hanging over

It's taking me to another side
To a part of me I rather hide
But now the mirror has been broken

This time goes by
Wait for the sun to rise
It's a matter of your smile, if it fades away

I hold my breath 'till it's over

(Bridge, 'ooh')

This time goes by
(Just) wait for the sun to rise
It's a matter of your smile, if it fades away

Take all my memories
Just know that my heart stays right

I hold my breath 'till it's over
