Use every chance you've been given she replied after several days It's no good to be perfect you know so well things are easy to tell There is one thing I know it goes like this It's that when I lose my sleep it's you I miss I have told you this before and my transparent mind won't cover see-through hearts I'll be straight with you now Now I'm not what you want just like the rest
and you feel like you're subject to a test But if there's one thing I know it's this When I lose my sleep it's you I miss You sleep all night
you know you lie awake
Tell me, yeah
And time is running out and you know so well

it may never be

Use every chance you've been given

she is told, but it doesn't make her smile

She has no need to be perfect

She knows too well

things are easy to tell

I have said what I thought you should know but you never seem to recognize my face
