"Hammer Of The Gods"

Lookout when you hear a roar of a god when he strikes his sword Eyes of fire
Almighty power
A time we danced for gold where dreams were bought and sold Mystic nights
Burning bright

Fear the hammer of the gods

A fight between evil minds the warwitch keeping time
The knights they ride their will is high
To the west the spirits mean pushing hard the destiny Unholy reich
Burns the night

Fear the hammer of the gods

Will the evil end when the witch's grains are thin Deadly hour
Holy power Thunder crash in the sky evil knights left to die Blood is thin
For wicked sin

Fear the hammer of the gods
