I can hear you cry again;
Searching for something you don't really know.
I just wish for you to see, that all my pain is not because
of you.
I just want you to be, just to be here with me.
Don't see me go.
I want to stay with you forever, though I promise you my girl...

You don't understand
But what do you think I felt?
From the start of this all,
I didn't want you to fear.

You will never know my truth.
And from the beginning,
I didn't want to tell you, to tell you.

I can hear you cry again.
The answers you wanted will never be true.
I just wish for you to see, that all my pain is not because
of you.
I just want you to be the angel, the person that I always knew.
And this is not goodbye; I promise that I will be watching you.

So when you close your eyes you will see, another world that's waiting for you and me.
And I will guide you, just believe, in me.
Just believe.

Just live this life for me;
It's all I ask you.
Just take everything you have and you will see:
When you don't have the strength, I'm watching you,
I'm watching you,
I'm watching.
