The poster on the wall of a dear friend
I wish there was a way that I could show you how your songs set me free
The hero of them all
You're a legend
I guess I'll never get a chance to know you Still you're close as can be

Make the bandstand to a dreamland, Rubber Ball Man

Clapping your hands, let your feet dance, Rubber Ball
Man
When you're jumping up and down, nobody's standing still
Some of us dreaming, some of us screaming
Look at your fans, how we love you, Rubber Ball Man!
