[Van Drunen / Daniels, Van Drunen]

Lust is our motive
a divine gift
burning sensations
let your mind drift
lust awakes feelings
we usually hide
lust is desire sets your soul on fire

Lust gives ecstasy, lust is a thrill hidden emotions, allow you to kill lust is ambition, lust brings greed lust will show you what you need lust for passion, lust for sex lust for life and lust for death lust is infinity, lust is our beast reflecting mirror of forbidden feasts

Lust creates frustrations burning psychic pains manic depressions
will drive you insane put your mind open
enter yourself
discover the savage behind its mental shell

Lust is our freedom, lust is our curse lust will guide us for good or for worse lust is a tear, lust is a smile anger and joy dance on in your mind lust is a woman, lust is a man war between sexes, who understand? that we're still children when our spirits break free
