Jennifer, Jennifer
Please come out walking with me
Don't say you'd prefer to stay home watching tv
I don't mind whatever you do
I'm alright when I'm with you
And I don't want to kiss nobody
Nobody but you
I ain't gonna miss nobody
Nobody but you
Your eyes, they beautifully shine
Each time they look into mine

Jennifer, Jennifer
Your mother warned you bout me
Don't listen to her
Please come out walking with me
You smile in a beautiful way
You're lovely is all I can say
And I ain't thinking of nobody
Nobody but you
I ain't gonna love nobody
Nobody but you
Please tell me when are you free
To come out walking with me

I can't help you no more Jennifer
Except to show you the door
Tell you the score

Jennifer
Please come out waking with me
Oh don't say you'd prefer to stay home watching TV
I don't mind whatever you do
I'm alright when I'm with you
