Blink yourself away this time.
What you just saw was real.
Iâ€™ve been hiding behind my mind.
Discovering ways to not feel.
Am I alive or dead?
Are these all just images playing through my head?
Then the sound escapes.
And Iâ€™m wondering how long Iâ€™ve been under.

Pull me up! Iâ€™m falling, like autumns leaves.

Would you believe me if I said. This is all a dream.

Snap back to reality.
Step back from all that we choose to see.
Look past reflections on the water.
To find, inner beauty.

Itâ€™s all below, if you look past the blindfold.
