"Let Down"

Well you're mean to me like a woman can be and
You're a let down
Spend my money
Like you think it's funny
What a let down

Oh finally I see
What's in this for me

When I've been sleeping and
You've been creeping
What a let down
There's no reaction
No fatal attraction
Just a let down

Girl, take my advice
Next time think twice
Think twice

Ooh what a fool I am
To think you'd give a damn
My handsome dignity
You've taken that away from me

Well lucky you
With your sky so blue
But I've been let down
Better for me
On my hands, my knees
I've been let down

Oh baby can't you see
The world's so down on me
Down on me
