Visit "Prelude Of The End" on MotoLyrics.com

When I try to remember the beginning
The whole thing comes like a dream
That don't bring me laughs
And something might be reality

CHORUS

The nothing , the empty
Without light
Without a way

I still have regards
From what I've been but, who am I?
Prisoner of one life that
I don't know the past

(CHORUS)

Due to scare of what I've been
Today I hide myself in darkness
Catching the few that rest
Waiting for the end of the line

(REPEAT)

< BR>When I'll find what I think it's real
To quench my thirsty for the truth
Finishing my sufferings and fears
Ahead of me like a thick haze

(CHORUS)

When I try to remember the beginning
The whole thing comes like a dream
That don't bring me laughs
