"Ein Hauch Von Kälte"

Freezing winds of lands unnamable
Haunts the wastes of my soul
And time has come to join eternity...
To rest my eyes upon the darker shade of colour
This is the end and the beginning
As dimensions warped in time's motionless storms
The long awaited circle is close
And the gates stand open wide before me
Lie down and let your dreams attack
The silence of a soul that is real
Is the silence that you lack
I feel the strength pulsating through me
As I close the gates behind you
Dies ist das Ende deiner Existenz
Wenn sich dein Himmel zu Eis verwandelt
Und ein Hauch von Kälte dein Blut erstarren lässt,
Werde ich deine Seele zerschmettern
