In each watchtower, as the body of flesh lives,
So the body of light lives so the body of light lives
I feel the darkness pressing all up and down the sky!
I feel the darkness pressing all up and down the sky!

... lalala something something something...

So the body of light lives so the body of light lives
I feel the darkness pressing all up and down the sky!
I feel the darkness pressing all up and down the sky!

... lala something else... singing with kool piano...
... *FUCKING AMAZING GUITAR SOLO! *...
... *SOMETHING SOMETHING SOMETHING SOMETHING SOMETHING SOMETHING! *...

some... thing something something so delightful
This it seems how difficult something something we're so far from it!

Bunch more somethings till the end of the song... :)
