When you see her on the street with that black dress on
She's all dolled up, she's shining like a sun
You better believe, she's coming to see me
So when you see her walk by don't you go and stare
What's the matter with you, boy, don't you think I care?
That's my girl, yeah, she's with me
Well, all the boys stay off from their stores
Ladies lock your fellows behind closed doors
'Cause my girl is sweeter than yours
Just one spoonful make my coffee sweet
I don't need no cream and sugar when she's with me
It's my girl, sweeter than ice tea
Long hair, running all down her back
Bluest eyes on earth, and that's a fact
And she only has eyes for me
Well, all the boys stay off from their stores
Ladies lock your fellows behind closed doors
'Cause my girl is sweeter than yours
She don't waste no time with them other men
Ain't got nothing on me
You see, I'm her man
I'm anything that woman wants me to be
Every time my phone goes ringing ding ding
I know it's my sweet baby calling me
And I'll be anywhere that woman wants me to be
Well, all the boys stay off from their stores
Ladies lock your fellows behind closed doors
'Cause my girl is sweeter than yours
