We wait, and pray, for something to come
I don't want this fear, to cause me to run
I break you into, this everlasting gaze
You ask me for everything, you beg for my praise
I'm tired of this shit you put me through
I'm sick of all this madness, I'm tired of your games!
(Chorus)
Chains and bricks will bend my life, your fatal blows will drive you down...
Torn and shattered, your life resents this, a petal of
hate overcomes you now...

Down on my knees, All I ask for is freedom
But you took that away, now your time has come
I'll rise on my feet, and like the wolf in the meadows
I'll strike with a force, then you can watch me go
I won't take no more of this abuse, no more of this hatefulness
You'll feel my wrath, a full fledged war, till you are nothingness
(Chorus)
Chains and bricks will bend my life, your fatal blows will
drive you down...
Torn and shattered, your life resents this, a petal of
hate overcomes you now...

I don't want you in my life anymore! (Your games mean nothing to me)
I don't want your fucking memories! (Your pain makes me sing)
I just want out of this haze! (Tears will fall from your cheeks)
I JUST WANT OUT OF YOUR LIFE NOW!
(Chorus)
Chains and bricks will bend my life, your fatal blows will
drive you down...
Torn and shattered, your life resents this, a petal of
hate overcomes you now...
