Blistering cold, eats me away
Cloud up the feelings, you begged me to say
Fuck up the ehart and shatter my brain
Distorted the vision of what I was today

(Chorus)

Fuck all your feelings
I'll fuck up your love
You can't see the bleeding
But I can still taste the blood

So I'm the damned loser becoming disgrace
Can't see the pain in my porcilen face
I wanted to leave you, I forgot just to say
Didn't matter bitch, you had the last say

(Chorus)

Fuck all your feelings
I'll fuck up your love
You can't see the bleeding
But I can still taste the blood

Inside the forest outside my mind
Dumbed out of nothing pours in the same
Angels of destruction devils are saints?
When the fuck did you steal my mother fucking mind! ?

(Chorus)

Fuck all your feelings
I'll fuck up your love
You can't see the bleeding
But I can still taste the blood
