5 - 10 - 20 - 40 - 50 - 60 - 10 - 80 - 85 - 90 - 95 - ooh
It's morning I open my eyes and everything's still the same

I turn to the guy who stayed last night and ask him:
What's your name?
This seems to happen more and more
I love those men one and all

Each new one I meet makes heart beat faster
When I see them so strong and tall.
So many men - so little time. How can I lose?
So many men - so little time. How can I choose?
They tell me I'm up to no good
I should just settle down

But I don't wanna stay with just one man
I wanna sample what's around.
Feels like I'm in heaven every night being here with someone new

A physical thrill
a beautiful smile and wonderful muscles too.
So many men - so little time. How can I lose? . . .
5 - 10 - 20 - 40 - 50 - 60 - 10 - 80 - 85 - 90 - 95 - ooh
So really who cares about love
the ones that feel
take it away.
For 52 weeks of every year that's a new man every day.
It's too hard a choice to make up my mind so many men turn on my light

Still want to go some don't want brains
just give me their bodies tonight.
So many men - so little time. How can I lose? . ; .
