It's raining, it's pouring
A black sky is falling
It's cold tonight

You gave me your answer,
Goodbye,
Now I'm all on my own tonight

When the big wheel starts to spin,
You can never know the odds,
If you don't play you'll never win.

We were in heaven you and I,
When I lay with you and close my eyes,
Our fingers touch the sky.

I'm sorry baby,
You were the sun and moon to me,
I'll never get over you, you'll never over me.

I'm sorry baby,
You were the sun and moon to me,
I'll never get over you, you'll never over me.

When the big wheel starts to spin,
You can never know the odds,
If you don't play you'll never win.

We were in heaven you and I,
When I lay with you and close my eyes,
Our fingers touch the sky.

I'm sorry baby,
You were the sun and moon to me,
I'll never get over you, you'll never over me.

I'm sorry baby,
You were the sun and moon to me,
I'll never get over you, you'll never over me.
