I'll grab hold of your demons and take them away,
baby, good times are here to stay.
This is me sweetheart, it ain't no disguise,
so rid that fear from your sad hazel eyes.

I see that pain that you hide in your heart,
I can't stand watchin' it tear you apart.
I'm all packed but babe, I want to stay.
Let this love last forever for one more day,
Let this love last forever, for one more day.

I ain't the hunter and you ain't the prey,
let your guard down, don't push me away.
Can't you see my feelings darlin', that they're true,
all I've ever done, well I've, done for you.

I see that pain that you hide in your heart,
I can't stand watchin' it tear you apart.
I'm all packed but babe, I want to stay.
Let this love last forever for one more day,
Let this love last forever, for one more day.

Gather up your things and run away with me,
Lock your past behind you and throw away the key.
We're movin' forward babe, don't you ever look back,
You and I will get this old train back on track.

I see that pain that you hide in your heart,
I can't stand watchin' it tear you apart.
I'm all packed but babe, I want to stay.
Let this love last forever for one more day,
Let this love last forever, for one more day.
