

Abracadabra "Suicide Of Love"

Visit "Suicide Of Love" on MotoLyrics.com

And the monster in the glass
Sings an echo from my past
While my bitter silence ends
And my innocence is dead

And I'm waiting for a love again
I'm waiting for the night to end

Golden legs that walk the sea
Carry her away from me
While I'm dying in the shade
Of a forest that I made

And I'm waiting for a love again
I'm waiting for the night to end

So show me how do I say goodbye
When I can't find my life denied,
Stuck inside this suicide of love?

All simplicity is shed
And my innocence is dead
While a distant melody
Is destroying me.

So how do I say goodbye
When I can't find my life denied
Stuck inside this bitter suicide of love
Won't let me hide,
This suicide of love won't lose its hold on me
Stuck inside, this suicide of love
