If you've been living like a rock star, not getting too far
Remember what I say, just take it
If you're too weak and have a feather heart, ignoring who you are Remember what I say, don't fake it

If you're a mother with a tainted life, accepting all the lies
Remember what I say, you'll make it
If you're a big shot with some fancy car, with credits way too high
Remember...

Don't wage your war on time
Reach out and find your aim
True laws will redefine and breach the quake
All will follow

If you're too keen on sharing all your pride, seeking your own advice
Remember what I say, forget it
If you're to feel the pain of all the lies that make us all too high
Remember what I say, you won't take it

All these pills we take won't redefine what makes us whole inside
Remember what I say, I mean it
Twist your faith and bring us all to life and make us reunite
Remember...

Don't wage your war on time
Reach out and find your aim
True laws will redefine and breach the quake
All will follow

Step up and face your pride
Reach out and grab my hand
We'll tame you all at once

It's worth the pain
All will follow

Don't wage your war on time
Reach out and find your aim
True laws will redefine and breach the quake
All will follow...
