We struggle to face and to answer
We fought back in ways, faked a smile
Time works in such ways, strange assessment
When comes judgment day, you'll shell out

Let go, I've got a feeling you'll know
What it's like to be in the back now
Let go, I bet you hear me down low, that's it
Pay our scars in advance

Let go, I pity your law that makes us low
Like I said, I'll feel the same
Let go, I pity your law, I'll skip and go
For I bled too long, it brings us shame

We watch ourselves think we surrendered,

Our ego to play with your minds
No struggle, no pain, no remembrance
Next time you replay, do think twice

Let go, I've got a feeling you'll know
What it's like to be in the back now
Let go, I bet you hear me down low, that's it
Pay our scars in advance

Let go, I pity your law that makes us low
Like I said, I'll feel the same
Let go, I pity your law, I'll skip and go
For I bled too long, it brings us shame

Let go
I pity your law
