From the ancient battlefield a man has been rised
To fight against the deamons, that came to the right

We don't know what the abs are fore
We don't have a clue
This fight I do for you

Trapped in this nightmare when we got nowhere to go
Fallen dreams, broken hearts, the song of your life
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide, feeling so alone
This is the time to sing the song, the song of your life

The next morning, the battle was won
And we knew we'd made the right move

This is not the last fight, that we're gonna' do
So listen, to this words

Trapped in this nightmare when we got nowhere to go
Fallen dreams, broken hearts, the song of your life
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide, feeling so alone
This is the time to sing the song, the song of your life

(Solo)

Trapped in this nightmare when we got nowhere to go
Fallen dreams, broken hearts, the song of your life
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide, feeling so alone
This is the time to sing the song, the song of your life
