(Hook) I dream big, I always dream big I never look down
Do it for the fam One time for the kids Show 'em how to do it Then maybe one day, they can do it And always dream big, never dream small Put in that work Gotta give it look your all And maybe one day you'll look back on everything That one dream is what got you everything

Verse 1

I dreaming big , just wanna show to everybody cause there is so big dream grew up in me no matter everybody said it's so fail to see don't heard that all I just walkin' my career so free I want to stand , in the crowd , stay strong and fresher defeating and fighting my fear , so i clear my future i'd like to always be true , callin' my baby further whenever you call me so 'bitch', it's the only pleasure my parents kicked my out and I choose to stay here leavin' my fuckin school cause i have a fuckin' career there is no reason to make your another fuckin fear leavin' a lunch and i prefer choose some weed and beer remembered , everybody said 'never' but now I done something and say 'ever' and now everyone know , which the words called ' clever ' say goodbye and bye , let me write some letters cause I

Verse 2

Crowd come , never worried to take it easy cause I Go on , I always rappin' everyday I will get hip everyway , cause I hate school anyway so i put my lifestyle , let me rappin' and say I'll never give up , and i could never let my rhyme stop listen to every rap music till the speaker change drop i know it's fucked' up and it could make me be shocked don't ever make me get drop if you don't wanna get shot i feel better than before like more than a rockstar and always think I will get more than a superstar get my dream back , take a blackjack when I see they comin' with a bad sach and I hope now this is so great and I hope so this is so shit

i had ever know they will comin' and take a drift please take a look take a sit let me call you ' bitch '

Verse 3

now I'm the only one who had impossible friends they said 'you were looks so good for now , i like that man ' show up , i grow up , I can they saw the story of my life has woke up and begin but i know , I had a story I feel my fuckin ' sorry ' the time is gone away and now you wanna feel like me you see my destiny . it's all happened by me can you push your fuckin' ass when you see me in the stage with dr. Dre you see me , with money , i see you , with nothin now I had fuckin sing , you just get fuckin something I know you like 'pink' , you looks like can't breathing allow me if you want I lead you for a little rapping it's over , now you feelin' a fuckin fever tell a doctor , before you kicked out by fuckin dexter for lover , attention for you hear this fuckin' slacker then you tell this to me and tryinna say 'Imma fuckin rapper'
