Yeah I should've pay attention for the sign
And I should jumped when I got a big time
Breaking out my bones like some paper and an ink
Then I can't remember much of how I came in

Oh I can't remember my own name
That inst hard
Maybe I'm a big fan
Of mister mist mike

Therefore, I wanna a vision of the crime
Cause my memories
They're all filled with blind
Oh should I ever blame
The man with the filth old ride
Without glory, I'm waiting for fight

Yeah I probably probably shouldn't say
That I'm waiting for revenge
Yeah cause you are talking real loud
That in my mind I'm trapped with mess upon

Yeah I probably probably shouldn't say
That all I see has turn into gray
Yeah cause all the people in crowd
They're looking like dwarves and apes what's all about?
