I know that you always ask for much
But I know you're scared
Cause every time we talk about it
So sad the people like that
Control body effect
For all the things you said you'll become

Every time you made
Every time you do the "wish but I fold"
Living for the best with no more lies
"Where living for today"
Just like the things that you do
But however I know that you tried to impress
That you tried to impress

You taught me
Every thing that I know
To bury myself behind them
To carry about themselves
I'm unconsciously confined
Unconsciously confined

I know that you always ask for much
But I know you're scared
Cause every time we talk about it
So sad the people like that
Control body effect
For all the things you said you'll become

Every time you made
Every time you do the "wish but I fold"
Living for the best with no more lies
"Where living for today"
Just like the things that you do
But however I know that you tried to impress
That you tried to impress

You taught me
Every thing that I know
To bury myself behind them
To carry about themselves
I'm unconsciously confined

I'm feeling good
Killing all the blank time
And I hope you're stopping by
Cause I'm living for my pride
I'm feeling good
The rest I will take
Cause I know you're stopping by
But when you just reach my home
I wanna say goodbye
