Hello, if you're there pick up the phone I'm calling from 30,000 feet above you The captain's just informed us that our plane is going down
So I'm calling for one last time to say I love you

I'm not certain how much time I may have left, so I'll be brief
I'm sorry if this message only amplifies your grief
But I couldn't bear the burden of never having said goodbye
And the pain you feel, I promise you, will go away with time

I'm sorry I won't be there to see our children grow Please tell them that I loved them more than they will ever know Tell my family and friends how much I loved them all as well
I'm sure that we will meet again, but only time will tell I'm sorry most of all I won't be there when you grow old
To be there by your side and keep you warm when you are cold
Forgive me, but I think my time is drawing to a close So I've one last thing to tell you now before I have to go

I...
