"Close Your Eyes"

Close your eyes, and imagine a spring world
Close your eyes, and imagine you and me
Close your eyes, and let me hold you hands
Close your eyes, so I can see your face

I'm always just a creep
Nothing to brag about
I'm always just a coward
Nothing to be proud about
But why do you listen to me
Telling you to

Close your eyes, and imagine a brave new world
Close your eyes, and imagine you with beautiful lifes
Close your eyes, and let me hold you hands
Close your eyes, so I can see your face

I'm never going to take back my hands
They're yours forever
Together with you and me

Close your eyes, and let me hold you hands
Close your eyes, so I can see your face
