they were the blade of heavens anointed by the Right Hand of the Almighty in order to liberate the holy land legion - mallet for the unfaithful each of them obtained mercy from the Almighty and among them were also children so easily they were manipulated guilty of nothing giving them faith was enough the guides have showed them the way they still dream of paradise as it was promised to them forgetting, that they killed their own god still desiring immortality will their bloodshed be long remembered by the Holy Church?

these are the words of the Lord:

at first I made you servants and placed you on the Twelve Capitols of Power giving each of you the rule above the nine true ages of time (that from the greatest vessels and horns of your power you may rule pouring out the fire of life and grow on Earth. and that is how you became the robe of justice and truth)

Church?
