Verse 1: Iâ€™m never alone I see your throne and I see you I hear something so far away and you told me that itâ€™s the music thatâ€™s playing for the people to praise so now I lift up my hands and I will keep on believing over and over again now I understand that you are touching my heart so your love for me wonâ€™t fall apart

Chorus: everyone has something special to believe in and they have their arms open wide, thereâ€™s nothing to be afraid, thereâ€™s nothing left to hide everything you wished for they will all come true has only you believe in the beautiful God thatâ€™s so pure and so true and he will tell you, you should believe in my love too so just for my holy God believe in his love.
