Wooo

When I see a pretty woman
You know it give me a thrill
And she's tailor made to order
You know I can't stand still
And you won't need a doctor
'cause it'll cure all ills

And when I hear a noisy party
You know it gives me a chill it gets me rockin' and a rollin' And I can't stand still from morning 'til midnight
You know I can't stand still

You know I can't stand still
I can't stand still
You know I can't stand still
I can't stand still
from morning 'til midnight
You know I can't stand still

ooh yeah

When it comes to sippin' honey
You know I drink my fill and I'll be dancin' on the water

You know I can't stand still
from morning 'til midnight
You know I can't stand still

oh yeah

You know I can't stand still
I can't stand still
I can't stand still
You know I can't stand still
from morning 'til midnight
You know I can't stand still

You know I can't stand still
I can't stand still baby I can't stand still I just can't stand still from morning 'til midnight
You know I can't
You know I can't stand still

(thank you lads, thank you lads, thank you)
