(By Bon Scott, Malcolm Young & Angus Young)

[Verse 1:]

You learn to sing,
You learn to play,
Why don't the businessman
Ever learn to pay.
That's show business,
Show business,
Show business
That's the way it goes.

[Verse 2:]

You play in halls,
You play in bars,
You're climbin' walls
Chasin' stars.

[Verse 3:]

You pay the men,
You pay your dues,

When it's all gone
You sing the blues.

[Verse 4:]

You wanna roll,
You wanna rock,
But you find it hard
If your guitar's in hock.

[Verse 5:]

We smoke our butts,
They smoke cigars,
We drown in debt,
They drown in bars.

[Verse 6:]

You pull a chick,
Take her home,
No use, man,
You're worn out to the bone.

[Chorus after each verse]
