Small town girl goes west
'Cause she thinks its the only way to stay alive
She knows best who's who n' who's not Who's hot and who's the more fly
Now when she stands before you
And you're trying to converseate
What you don't know is she's scanning the room
For a bigger fish to swallow the bait

Now stepping stones and licking bones and cast them
all aside
I wonder what she's looking for tonight

There she goes again
Slippin' and slidin', duckin' and divin'
There she goes again
Tryin' all the new stuff
Tryin' to be fly

There she goes again
Slippin' and slidin', duckin' and divin'
There she goes again
Tryin' to be a new star
Tryin' to get high

All decked out in her designer clothes
'Cause she's shootin' from the hip with a credit card
Everybody thinks she's a bittle lit old
But you can't take long on an eyesore
Drivin' in a Beamer with the top down
Sunset queen in a big town
If you don't pay she'll go out of your way
Yeah, you don't want her hanging around

Now a stick and stone may break the bone, but it don't quench the fire
I wonder what she's looking for tonight

There she goes again
Slippin' and slidin', duckin' and divin'
There she goes again

Tryin' all the new stuff
Tryin' to be fly

There she goes again
Slippin' and slidin', duckin' and divin'
There she goes again
Tryin' to be the new star
Tryin' to get high

Now stepping stones and licking bones and cast them
all aside
I wonder what she's looking for tonight

And there she goes again
There she goes again, yeah
There she goes again
There she goes again

There she goes again
Slippin' and slidin', duckin' and divin'
There she goes again
Tryin' all the new stuff
Tryin' to be fly

There she goes again
Slippin' and slidin', duckin' and divin'
There she goes again
Tryin' all the new stuff
Tryin' to get high

She's so high (There she goes again)
She's so high (There she goes again)
She's so high (There she goes again)
She is so high (There she goes again)
She's so high (There she goes again)
She's so high (There she goes again)
She is so high (There she goes again)
