Let It Rain

as performed by Jon Bon Jovi and Luciano Pavarotti (Modena, 9.6.1998)

Last night I had a dream that there would be a morning after

Long days of sunshine and peace

Long nights of love, forgiveness, and laughter

Maybe it was just a dream but it could be reality

Children are like planting seeds, you've got to let their flowers grow

Don't you know

Fa che piova, (Let it rain)

Fa che il cielo mi lavi il dolor (Let heaven wash away my pain)

Fa che piova (Let it rain)

che sia la pace il nome d'amor (That peace would be the name of love)

Today I saw a child just like my child

Someone's son or daughter

I watched as they played for a while

I wanted to cry, those babies just smiled

Maybe it was just a dream, but it should be reality

A child is just God's sign that peace and love are seeds that make tomorrows grow

Fa che piova, (Let it rain)

Fa che il cielo mi lavi il dolor (Let heaven wash away my pain)

Fa che piova (Let it rain)

che sia la pace il nome d'amor (That peace would be the name of love)

Go on, we've tried war

No one wants peace more

Than the children who ask their dads why

Fa che piova, (Let it rain)

Fa che il cielo mi lavi il dolor (Let heaven wash away my pain)

Fa che piova (Let it rain)

che sia la pace il nome d'amor (That peace would be the name of love)
