All alone in bridge of silence

I suppose you shouldn't stay,

All alone in dream's asylum

Don't you know we've come a long way...

I suppose we were

Somewhere in the sun

We walked in coloured fields

In places on the run.

What a dream I had

Dressed in coloured shawls

Though the night was so warm

And a nightingale

Sat on a castle wall

While the river ran on

Calling - hearing you call

The river ran on

Running -

The river ran on.

It felt as if we were

In places yet unknown

We walked through the bazaars

In places on the run
What a dream I had
Walking by the wall
Oh the raiment and all
The stars that flickered by
Soon to be replaced
If I asked them they'd fall
Calling - hearing you call
The river ran on
Running -
The river ran on.
What a dream I had
Dressed in coloured shawls
Though the night was so warm,
And in the darkness I
Tried to take your hand
But it was nothing at all.
Nothing at all
The river ran on
Nothing at all.
The river ran on.
