"All out" cried the boy

And put the girl in danger

Whose only weapon was to believe in love

"All out" but don't say forever

Too late for re-arrangement

He's already thinking of another face

And she's drawing on the memory she can't erase

They're moving on

Keep a moving it yeah

They're moving on

We'll make it this time

I know we're gonna make it this time

Now the weight of intention carried the motion

And the damage was over done and was started as a bid for independence

Has ended with a starting gun

And he's wishing that he never said "All out"

But the words just get lost in space

And you know it's such a lonely place

When you realize you've lost that face

She's moving on

Counter revolution has taken place

We're moving on

Keep a moving it yeah

We're moving on

We'll make it this time

I know we're gonna make it this time
