I'm on my way, time is finally on our side There's a reason there's a rhyme to it all Wide awake, I'm not sleeping anymore
All the dreams I'll ever have are locked in you So much left to do..I'm on my way

There's nothing left to say there's a season there's a time for new memories We'll never turn around, we're on our way

On my way, I'll be on my way

Take my hand, or I can follow for a while we will travel through the miles to better days We'll leave today, it won't take us very long we can sing our favorite songs along the way if skies are blue or gray

There's so much left to do why should I stay here all alone when I know there's you And no more yesterdays, begin a journey hand in hand never looking back no matter what's ahead, I'm on my way

Yesterday I couldn't find my way and today all the roads lead to you...
