Even if we didn't talk I thought we'd understand
Maybe that's why we haven't been talking lately

We forgot to try speaking

We forgot to listen

Yet there were so many thing to talk about

Yes we do talk on the phone once in a while

But the conversations are meaningless

Just because I don't say it in words

It doesn't mean I don't appreciate you

How many times did I forget to say "Thank you"

It's not that hard

It should be so simple and easy

I'm sorry for all the "Thank you" I couldn't say to you my friend

Time has passed by and we grew older

I believed that nothing could come between us

Is it me that changed

Or is it you that changed

My love for you hasn't changed a bit

Why did I hesitate

I've had enough chances

I wanted to say so many things to you

You were always there for me

You gave me love and hope

Then what did I give you in return

How many times did I forget to say "Thank you"

It's not that hard

It should be so simple and easy

I'm sorry for all the "Thank you" I couldn't say to you my friend

How many times did I forget to say "Thank you"

From now on I am going to move on

I have decided
So this time I'm going to say to you
This is my song for you
Out loud I'll say "Thank you"
I mean it from the bottom of my heart
