Are You Waiting

Are you waiting for somebody
Who will simply give life to you,
Are you hoping you can hide from
All the things that might destroy you
Are you waiting?

Is there a gleam of joy in your eye
That says all your dreams will come true,
Are you waiting for the moment
When childhood will not control you,
Are you waiting?

Are you waiting for somebody
Who will tell you what to do
Are you waiting for the day
You make your mind up, it's up to you
Are you waiting
Why are you waiting?
Ohhhh.
