In a perfect world
There are no sinners
Every daddy comes home
Nobody's alone
Every bottle caps a winner
In a perfect world
Every boy's got a pony
Every heart we try to win
Won't say "Can't we just be friends?"
Nobody's fake or phony.

CHORUS

We don't have a perfect world
We'll soon see a perfect world
God's designed a perfect world

No tears in the perfect world
I believe the perfect God will one day
Take me to a perfect world
There's a perfect world

No more rejection
All the broken homes
Replaced by the love
Of a father's affection
In a perfect world
Could you imagine
No bills to pay
No wicked ways
Everybody's got a mansion?
