The woman of my dreams
Is in the scheme of things
And she is worth the wait
There's no one to compare
She is somewhere out there
She is worth the wait

CHORUS

And as I lay me down to sleep
I pray the Lord her (your) heart to keep
And baby I don't know your name
Don't think I've seen your face
But you are worth the wait

I am not ashamed to
Be a virgin for you
Baby you are worth the wait

I'm working day and night
To be your Mr. Right
I'll be worth your wait
Know that I will be true
And that I'll wait for you
Cause you are worth it, babe
And I don't know who you are Already I love you
Can't wait to meet you
Waiting for you.
