I'll try to make it back soon.
I missed you when I left the room.
You're my best friend, you're my best friend.
We've come along so far now,
Laughing as we watch the clouds.
You're my best friend, you're my best friend.

You, you know you mean the world to me.
I can't think of a better thing than growing old with you.
You know I need you by my side,
And everything seems better now with you here in my life.

I'll be sitting with you,
Chasing dreams inside my room.
You're my best friend, you're my best friend.
You're waiting by the back door,
To sit with me on our front porch.
You're my best friend, you're my best friend.

You, you know you mean the world to me.
I can't think of a better thing than growing old with you.
You know I need you by my side,
And everything seems better now with you here in my life.

Da, da, da, da
Da, da, da, da
Da, da, da, da
Da, da, da, da
Da, da, da, da
Da, da, da, daa

We've come along so far now,
Laughing as we watch the clouds.
You're my best friend, you're my best friend.
I'll try to make it back soon.
I missed you when I left the room.
You're my best friend, you're my best friend.
