Why do you run
Why do you hide
And where have you gone
Where have you gone
Where have you gone

It's five AM and you stumble out of bed
But you leave your mind in it for a little while
You listen to the clock, it's ticking up a storm
It tells you time's been running out the door
The cracks decide you have to find it
You have to find it

So why do you run
Why do you hide
And where have you gone
Where have you gone
Where have you gone

Twelve to one
You say "life's lost without love"
So you find someone to hold you for a little while
But still you run
I know you're searching for a ghost inside your head
You're ripping up the floors, the walls, and doors
You have to find it
You have to find it

So why so you run
Why do you hide
And where have you gone
Where have you gone
Where have you
Why do you run
Why do you hide
And where have you gone
Where have you gone
Where have you gone

I've looked for so long
But still you run
I know you're searching for a ghost inside your head

You're ripping up the floors, the walls, and doors
You have to find it
You're running so long
So long
So long

So why do you run
Why do you hide
And where have you gone
Where have you gone
Where have you
Why do you run
Why do you hide
And where have you gone
Where have you gone
Where have you gone

You're running so long
So long
Where have you gone
