

Make Me A Fool

Quietly listening to the "I'm thinking of you" sound

If you also remember that year's winter

That coat pocket, warm & sweet

Has our love's control

Could not calculate once hugged your distance

Perhaps I think of myself as too intelligent

Looks like love needs a little air

The day's rain still has some people who wait for it to clear up

That is because I care very much

Your elevation angle saw that I cry

Do you like this withdrawal?

You Make Me A Fool

I cover up the looked at goodbye answer that you gave me

Couldn't keep the promise you gave me

Happiness has already become lost

Unconscious, I do not have the escape route

Silly effort

Could not calculate once hugged your distance

Perhaps I think myself to be too intelligent

Looks like love needs a little air

The day's rain still has some people who don't worry

You Make Me A Fool

That is because I care very much

Your elevation angle saw that I cry

Do you like this withdrawal?

You Make Me A Fool

I cover up the looked at goodbye answer that you gave me

Couldn't keep the promise you gave me

Happiness already becomes lost

Unconscious, I do not have the escape route

Silly effort

You may say I'm silly to be possible

You may say that I haven't given up

Thought of that can let people anticipate the miracle

You Make Me A Fool(You Make Me A Fool)

I acknowledged that I am a little stubborn to love

That is because I care very much

Your elevation angle looked that I cry

Do you like this withdrawal?

You Make Me A Fool

I cover up the looked at goodbye answer that you gave me

Couldn't keep the promise you gave me

Happiness already has become lost

Unconscious I do not have the escape route

Silly Effort
