

Ace Enders & A Million Different People "Bring Back Love"

Visit "Bring Back Love" on MotoLyrics.com

By the year 2, 020

I want to look at what we did

So we can stand up all together

'Cause we put an end to it

And there'll be no more pointless fighting

No more money running it

Bring back love

Bring back love

Bring back love again

Yeah I was standing in a Chapel

It's not something I normally did

But I was broken, a mess

And I had nothing to give

A man with money in my pocket

I just stared straight up and looked at him

He said "Go take it son

You can do much more with it."

And we all could learn from him

Yeah I will never forget what he said

By the year 2, 020

I want to look at what we did

So we can stand up all together
'Cause we put an end to it
And there'll be no more pointless fighting
No more money running it
Bring back love
Bring back love
Now I was walking down my sidewalk
I just paid off my final debt
I see a woman and her son
Yeah, they have no place to live
The boy was turning out his pockets
I heard him wish he had a bed
I said I have some room you could use to get back in
She said "I'm not sure if I can pay you for this"
That's fine, I'm hoping...
By the year 2, 020
I want to look at what we did
So we can stand up all together
'Cause we put an end to it
Yeah there'll be no more pointless fighting
No more money running it
Bring back love
Bring back love
Bring back love again

