"We Got Your Rock"

Well, I see you starin' from the front row, girl
With a challenge in your eye
Darin' me to knock you out of your seat

And can't believe that a guy like me
Could rock you till you're paralyzed
And leave you beggin' for more, like a dog in heat

Now, if it's rock and roll you came for
It's rock and roll you're gonna get
Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!
We got your rock! Right here
We got your rock! Right here

If you still don't understand
I'll shout it out loud and clear
We got your rock! Right here

You got a backstage pass and a nice little ass
And you say you want to take me home
And I must admit, you really got me hot!

And it's nice to know that I've won your heart
"cause that's why I'm here you see
But you won't get me as easy as I'll get you
