(Finding the courage inside of you
Just close your eyes and believe)

Look back at the days
And remembering the dreams that we had
The possibilities were endless
We all believed in happy endings

(Praying for a chance
Try to find your own heaven)

The years that have passed
The ambitions that we've forgotten
Just like another shooting star
When did we all become so lifeless

(Don't you give it up
Don't you let it slip away)

(Pre-Chorus)

Reality is never just the way that we want it to be But without it dreams would never shine deep down you'll find the light inside of you

(Chorus)

Courage that you gave to me is priceless
Together as one, together as one
You and i will make it, dreams that last forever
We will face a brand new day

All the days you gave to me are priceless
Together as one, together as one
It's time for us to open new doors
Step out, there's nothing to fear

(Solo)

Nothing ever stays the same

We're changing every day, there's no turning back
Just look ahead
So don't forget that i'm here with you

Everything we thought we had
Was nothing but a dream
And all that is left for us to see
The time has come now for us to believe

(Chorus)

Courage that you gave to me is priceless
Together as one, together as one
You and i will make it, dreams that last forever
We will face a brand new day

All the days you gave to me are priceless
Together as one, together as one
It's time for us to open new doors
Step out there's nothing to fear
