I am like the ocean
Twisted as the tides
Up and down emotions
Playing with your mind

I will hurt you, just to hold you
Standing in the rain
Thorns come with the roses
And I will bring you pain

Oh, I'll make you cry now
It's better you know
I'll break your heart
A thousand times

I'll say goodbye but
I'll never let go
I told you mine is
A hard hand to hold

Midnight conversations
Full of lullabies
Take a lot of patience
Too much sacrifice

I will crush you, just to hear you
Screaming out my name
When you're desperate, down and dirty
You'll have me to blame

Oh, I'll make you cry now
It's better you know
I'll break your heart
A thousand times

I'll say goodbye but
I'll never let go
I told you mine is
A hard hand to hold
I told you it's a hard hand to hold

Didn't I, didn't I tell you?

Didn't I, didn't I tell you?
Didn't I, didn't I tell you?
(I told you)
Didn't I, didn't I tell you?

Oh, I'll make you cry now
It's better you know
I'll break your heart
A thousand times

I'll say goodbye but
I'll never let go
I told you mine is
A hard hand to hold

I'll make you cry now
It's better you know
I'll break your heart
A thousand times

I'll say goodbye but
I'll never let go
I told you mine is
A hard hand to hold

Didn't I, didn't I tell you?
(I told you)
Didn't I, didn't I tell you?
(A hard hand to hold)

Didn't I, didn't I tell you?
(Don't let go)
Didn't I, didn't I tell you?
(A hard hand to hold)
