"Her Name"

She walks bare feet
In silent nights
She blows out the candles
You'd better watch 'cause she won't have mercy

It's our masquerade
Can't hear her name

And no one knows her name
Her sulfur scent
Shrouds all of our prayers
And will bury you

White is her skin when
She combs your hair
She smiles when your life
Suffocates inside her fist

It's our masquerade
can't hear her name

And no one knows her name
Her sulfur scent
Shrouds all of our prayers
And will bury you
